The "Infinite Encyclopaedia [1]" Project by the Società Dante Alighieri, which will participate i the “Up to 29 years old” Category of the Global Junior Challenge [2], aims to promote and diffuse Italian language and culture.

The lessons by experts available on the “Enciclopedia Infinita” portal at www.ladante.it [3] are dedicated to students, researchers and scholars around the world.

The objective is to promote and diffuse Italian language and culture, and educate the new generations through their favourite medium. In fact, the use of a popular non-specialist form of language, together with evocative images, make the project interesting for a vast public, including foreigners.

The videos can be used for cultural promotion at conferences, literary meetings, and round tables, both in Italy and abroad.
