After the official tests with sport champions and the participation in the final event of the Global Junior Challenge ^[1] with Project Advantage ^[2], the tennis wheelchair developed by Lab 3.11 ^[3] has finally arrived in schools.

The first to test the special wheelchair is a year-four primary school student in Anguissola, in the province of Cremona.

Daily "Cremona Oggi" reports on the project (in Italian) ^[4]
